American Trailer & Storage Announces Name Change

KANSAS CITY, Missouri, December 17, 2007 – American Trailer & Storage, Inc., today announced that it has changed its name to AT&S. The new name draws upon the company’s significant brand recognition in the portable storage and transportation industries.

“The name change to AT&S reflects our successful efforts to expand through acquiring other companies in key Midwestern cities,” said AT&S President Rick Honan. “As we expand into new markets we will continue our commitment to industry-leading customer service and quality products.”

AT&S provides secure, accessible temporary storage and transportation for a diversified client base of over 800 customers in 75 different industries. Headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri, AT&S currently has operations in Kansas City, St. Louis and Lincoln, Nebraska. The Company primarily rents and sells equipment in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois. Customers use the company’s products for a wide variety of storage and transportation applications, including the storage of retail and manufacturing inventory, protection of construction materials and equipment, handling peaks in shipping cycles and transporting material to and from customers’ or their construction jobs.
